

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 05/03/2024 09:27 AM

Comments Received :

The U.S. Census should maintain items asking respondents to report their biological sex as observed and recorded at birth. Separate items related to the respondent's self-reported gender identity should be phrased to target the respondent's desire to appear as the opposite sex, and feelings of distress at not being perceived in their preferred manner.