

Author Full Name : Curtis Jensen

Received Date : 05/06/2024 03:22 PM

Comments Received :

Thank you for including questions related to LGBTQ people in the United States. The existence and needs of LGBTQ people don't go away because someone has a moral objection to our existence or inclusion in public life. We pay taxes, vote, work, serve in the military, own homes, participate in the economic, social, religious and political life of the United States at every level and we deserve to be counted and have our existence considered.