

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 06/11/2024 09:18 AMComments Received :

It was disappointing to learn of NCES's intention to eliminate the academic library portion of IPEDS. The response to the first round of public comments noted that no other individual institutional resource or service has its own component of IPEDS. That is because the library is fundamental to the purpose and process of education in a way that no other resource or service is. The academic library portion of IPEDS should therefore be retained.