

Author Full Name : Shelle Schlosser

Received Date : 06/11/2024 04:40 PM

Comments Received :

I believe that the State Review should have to confirm with local school districts the accuracy of the data submitted to the Census Bureau before submission. The school districts should assign someone with knowledge of school district boundaries to be the point of contact for the state official. I believe that the data collected would more accurate for funding purposes if the State Agency would have to verify the information they are reporting.