

Author Full Name : Jennifer Rosenstein

Received Date : 06/12/2024 11:36 AM

Comments Received :

I oppose the plan to eliminate the Academic Libraries survey. I am the director of an academic library and the Academic Libraries survey is absolutely crucial to allow us to compare our staffing levels, collections and services to our benchmark institutions and national trends. The unique, longitudinal data also allows to track changes over time and make sure we are staying up to date with the needs of our students and community.