

Author Full Name : Anna PidgeonReceived Date : 06/12/2024 11:35 AMComments Received :

I oppose the plan to eliminate the Academic Libraries survey. I am an academic, and make heavy use of academic libraries for my research and teaching. Libraries need the Academic Library survey as through its unique longitudinal data it provides crucial information about changes and trends in college and university libraries. This is important benchmark information for identifying changes, trends, degradation, or augmentation of services. Thank you for supporting library excellence by continuing the survey.