

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 06/12/2024 12:00 PM

Comments Received :

The academic libraries section is vital to my work as an academic librarian. I use the data from my library and other similar libraries to show the information needs of my students and how our services compare to other institutions. If this data is no longer collected, I will not be able to communicate about library collections and services accurately. This will harm my library and other libraries.