

Author Full Name : Stephanie Tully

Received Date : 06/12/2024 11:49 AM

Comments Received :

I think we need the survey more than ever because of economic factors that communities are having to face, attacks on librarians and curriculum, and staff shortages for teachers and librarians. The survey shows what happening to education in this country and we need as much information as possible to supports schools and communities who are facing multiple challenges right now.