

Author Full Name : Baillie PretzerReceived Date : 06/12/2024 12:01 PMComments Received :

I oppose the plan to eliminate the Academic Libraries survey. The data this survey provides is crucial not only to the institutions themselves but to the overall job market and the critical changes in trends that occur at these institutions. Especially with regard to research institutions that have Federal, State, and Local ties such data is extremely important for conducting fully informed assessments that prompt and substantiate necessary changes and adjustments.