

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 06/12/2024 12:00 PMComments Received :

The data we collect from the academic libraries component of the IPEDS survey has been invaluable for program review and for measuring our progress compared to peer institutions. The ACRL report collects much of the same data, but it is an optional report, so the value of that data is not comparable.