

Author Full Name : Sarah Ziah SparksReceived Date : 06/12/2024 12:25 PMComments Received :

I oppose the plan to eliminate the Academic Libraries survey, a valuable source of information for librarians and academics. The unique longitudinal data of the survey provides crucial information about changes and trends in college and university libraries. Having worked as an academic librarian, I have seen how this is valuable information for libraries and academic institutions for self study, comparison, and an understanding of the data surrounding libraries and information resources in higher education.