

Author Full Name : Polly ParkinsonReceived Date : 06/12/2024 12:52 PMComments Received :

What a terrible plan to eliminate the Academic Libraries survey! I am a PhD student who makes frequent use of academic libraries. I have also been a library employee and expect to be in the future. So many budget decisions require us to submit data, and many programming decisions are based on data about changes and trends.

Please support the ongoing collection of data at college and university libraries; they play a vital role in education and that effects all of society.

Thank you,

Polly Parkinson