

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 06/12/2024 12:45 PMComments Received :

I am writing to advocate for continued gathering and dissemination of the American Libraries survey data. The academic library data is critical to proving and understanding the value of libraries and their contribution to higher education. Just as a university couldn't fully support research, teaching, and learning without library resources, so should IPEDS continue to include library data. Thank you.