

Author Full Name : Angela CamackReceived Date : 06/12/2024 01:07 PMComments Received :

I oppose the proposal to eliminate the Academic Libraries Survey. Academic libraries provide valuable services to students and those employed in colleges and universities. As a former academic librarian, I observed that technology available to libraries is always changing. Also changing is the population that libraries provide services for. Updated information about library use, needs and the service they provide is important to understand library issues, to maintain current information and provide support for funding.