

Author Full Name : Rachel RobersonReceived Date : 06/12/2024 01:05 PMComments Received :

I oppose the plan to eliminate the Academic Libraries survey. I am an advocate with the American Library Association and I have previously worked at a university library. This unique dataset should be protected and continued so that it can continue to provide crucial information about changes and trends in college and university libraries, especially at a time when public libraries are often under threat across the country. Please preserve this data and help support the critical work of American libraries.