

Author Full Name : Emilie Altman

Received Date : 06/12/2024 01:46 PM

Comments Received :

I oppose the plan to stop collecting data about academic libraries. I have worked in an academic library, and I believe that data about them is crucial to understanding and improving academic libraries. The Academic Libraries survey provides important information about the state of and trends in academic libraries that is valued by schools and librarians. It would be a huge loss if it were discontinued.