

Author Full Name : Grant HalterReceived Date : 06/12/2024 02:59 PMComments Received :

I am against the proposal to abolish the Academic Libraries survey. The Academic Libraries survey's distinct longitudinal data offers essential insights into the evolving trends and developments within college and university libraries. I use the data regularly to assess the status of our academic library members and provide them with impactful information we use to advocate for their work. I implore you to reconsider eliminating the Academic Libraries survey, it is crucial for understanding the changing landscape of college and university libraries.