

Author Full Name : Allison IsztokReceived Date : 06/12/2024 02:44 PMComments Received :

I am an advocate with ALA and work at a university library. I oppose the plan to eliminate Academic Library surveys and the collection of data. Academic libraries are crucial for student experience and knowledge within academic environments, and the elimination of data collection eliminates the crucial information provided by the surveys on trends and changes in academic libraries. If any care is had about higher education and academics, data should continue to be collected to support learning and academic libraries.