

Author Full Name : James GlennReceived Date : 06/12/2024 03:30 PMComments Received :

As an academic librarian and a member of American Library Association and its subsidiary Association of College and Research Libraries I adamantly oppose the plans to eliminating the Academic Libraries Survey. Academic libraries rely on NCES data to develop workforce planning, spatial needs, and technology infrastructure development. I strongly encourage you to reconsider this plan and continue the implementation of the Academic Libraries Survey.