

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 06/12/2024 08:57 PMComments Received :

The data in the survey conveys how libraries support students and student learning and how they can be a major factor in the success of a student. Libraries are often the first areas where budgets get cut. Without the mandate the data won't be kept. The data demonstrates how the institution values the student experience and support, especially within academics. Looking at this data over a span of time indicates the health of the institution.