

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 06/13/2024 09:05 AM

Comments Received :

Again I beg of you, don't get rid of the Academic Libraries portion of the survey! This data is vital for libraries and accreditors. In addition, libraries are vital to a university or college - dropping them from the survey indicates a devaluing by the government, and likely will be interpreted as such by university administrations and boards of trustees who don't understand all that libraries do for students. PLEASE do not do this!