

Author Full Name : Kimberly ClarkReceived Date : 06/13/2024 11:24 AMComments Received :

I oppose the plan to eliminate the Academic Libraries Survey. As someone who works professionally in the library world, I understand how important surveys like this are. The data collected in this survey is vital to understanding the changes and trends of academic libraries. We are a data driven society. If we want our academic libraries to be successful we need this data to make the best -informed- decisions.