

Author Full Name : Jennifer boettcher

Received Date : 06/14/2024 01:26 PM

Comments Received :

With IPEDS/NECS and IMLS funding in question, it makes you think the administration and/or registration does not care about Libraries and our role in low-cost lifetime learning, entertainment, or community building. The library's role in developing critical thinking skills let alone educating others about information, data, media, AI, or historical literacy is essential and NECS and IMLS are a means for accountability and development.