

Author Full Name : Laurie Robb

Received Date : 06/17/2024 04:16 PM

Comments Received :

As an academic librarian I feel that libraries are vital to the success of our students. Libraries played a huge role in helping my own success as an undergraduate and in graduate school. Please include data on academic libraries to keep us on the forefront and help everyone understand the importance of the work librarians do as well as the importance of keeping academic study space at all campuses.