As a professional within the Higher Education Financial Aid industry, I would like say that I agree wholeheartedly with NASFAA's comment dated 06/17/24 and provided by Mr. Justin Draeger.

We desperately need an extension of the initial reporting deadline to later than October 1, 2024. Due to all of the FAFSA errors, extensions, delays, etc, we are desperately scrambling to complete and award students for the upcoming year and do not have time to help our other campus departments with this reporting requirement.
