

Author Full Name : Rachel PaprockiReceived Date : 06/18/2024 05:43 PMComments Received :

As an academic librarian and in solidarity with the more than 300 member institutions of the Statewide California Electronic Library Consortium (SCELC), I am writing to oppose the U.S. Department of Education's proposal to terminate the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) library survey. Preserving the IPEDS library survey will facilitate compliance with accreditation standards and enable academic librarians throughout the country to support the academic excellence of their institutions.