

Author Full Name : Rebecca RussellReceived Date : 06/19/2024 01:37 PMComments Received :

I would like to request to re-instate the Academic Libraries information in the IPEDs survey. This was the main source of information used by our profession to share information about our operations. Libraries are the heart of every academic institution and fulfill a vital role by providing resources, including space, personnel, programming, and a variety of physical and digital resources. To exclude library information is an egregious oversight of the value of libraries to the success of postsecondary education.