

Author Full Name : Michael Heffernan-Zelaya

Received Date : 06/20/2024 07:34 PM

Comments Received :

I oppose the plan to eliminate the Academic Libraries survey. I'm an advocate with the American Library Association, and I work as a paraprofessional, serving the public, high school student, and university students. This survey provides essential data to ensure proper decision-making and understanding related to university libraries.

I hope you make the right decision so as to ensure library professionals have the tools and data needed to continue providing excellent service to university students and academic professionals.