

Author Full Name : Scott LloydReceived Date : 06/21/2024 09:19 AMComments Received :

The Academic Library Survey of the IPEDS report is an extremely valuable tool for libraries. There is no other free resource of statistical information for libraries to use for benchmarking purposes. Being able to compare data with peer libraries is a necessary component of any self-study plan or continuous improvement plan. This survey must be retained in order to aid all academic libraries, large and small, in benchmark analysis.