

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 06/23/2024 07:04 PMComments Received :

I oppose the plan to eliminate the Academic Libraries survey. The Academic Library survey provides libraries with the ability to conduct proper benchmarking, inform policy decisions, and demonstrate compliance with accreditation requirements. I am a library director at a liberal arts college and the IPEDS data has been critical to visibility within my institution and how our libraries contribute to the overall mission of the college.