

Author Full Name : Micki WaldropReceived Date : 06/24/2024 10:18 AMComments Received :

I work at a university library and I oppose the elimination of the academic libraries survey. It is difficult to quantify the importance of the library to the institution's mission, student retention efforts, and school completion without this type of data. Additionally, surveys like this provide academic libraries and the intuitions they serve the feedback they need in order to keep up with the trends and needs of our student and faculty bodies.