

Author Full Name : Hallie RichReceived Date : 06/24/2024 10:26 AMComments Received :

I oppose the plan to eliminate the Academic Libraries survey. Removing this reporting opportunity will deprive institutions of the ability to effectively benchmark with peers for purposes of investment and resource allocation, particularly with respect to student enrollment and success. Academic libraries rely on the information gathered through this data collection. It would be detrimental to eliminate that data collection.