

Author Full Name : Gwen Pond

Received Date : 06/24/2024 10:53 AM

Comments Received :

Collecting library usage, statistics is a very important exercise to continue. Perhaps the information collected needs to be revisited and how it is collected, but it should be collected.

Being able to assess the quality of our education in part by looking at the resources used and the extent that they are used should be something the federal government should be able to look at or at least standardize how it is looked at even if only they put a federal stamp of approval on COUNTER statistics.