

Author Full Name : Jayne DowningReceived Date : 06/24/2024 11:43 AMComments Received :

I oppose the plan to eliminate the Academic Libraries survey. I am retired librarian who knows the value of surveys in maintaining a well-rounded library to serve our students and academic community. When using aggregated data librarians can plan collections, project budgets and consider staffing needs. It has been through this survey that crucial information about changes and trends as can be shared information with peers regarding investment and resource allocation. This is vital to academic libraries and should be funded.