

Global Health Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Accessibility Power of Words Feedback Form

The Power of Words is a living document that harnesses Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Accessibility (DEIA)-friendly language to inform the Bureau of Global Health's internal and external communications. Your feedback is critical to keep this document relevant with the evolving landscape. Entries are submitted to the Anti-Discrimination Council's Language & Communications Workstream, which meets quarterly (e.g., September, January) to review submissions.

Following the meeting date after your submission, we will respond with a determination. Thank you for taking the time to submit your recommendation.

PRIVACY NOTICE: The Global Health DEIA Team/Anti- Discrimination, Diversity and Inclusion Council (ADC) will use this information to inform future GH/DEIA communication products and subsequent workshops. Feedback will only be viewed by the DEIA Team and the ADC and your individual responses will not be attributed or linked to you. Your participation will help ensure adequate representation of your views. Completion of this survey is voluntary. You may choose to respond to all or any of the questions. If you agree to participate, you may withdraw your participation in the survey at any time by simply exiting the survey. Please note that we are not requiring the disclosure of respondent email addresses, and would encourage you not to include any personally identifiable information for yourself or others in your responses below.
