

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 08/29/2024 08:26 AMComments Received :

I am against changing the NSDUH survey name. As it states in the description - "The survey's name is currently well recognized by those in the community, states, and academia, and this recognition comes from the quality of the established information provided. "

I am worried that changing name would decrease the response rates.

It is not necessary to add behavioral health to the survey name to emphasize the inclusion of the mental health. Health = Mental Health.