Community Worksheet

1. Completed Heat Actions and Interests

The following questions are intended to capture your community's existing heat actions, intentions, and stretch goals should capacity be increased. Communities will not be scored according to evidence of more advanced heat action efforts. Rather, responses will be used to make sure selected communities and lead organizations are representative of a diversity of levels of heat planning maturity and interests.

1.A Heat Data

Please indicate what types of data you have access to and whether they are used in planning / decisionmaking processes. Please utilize the 'other' option if there are data you are using or are interested in using that is not listed.

Data Type	High Engagement		Medium Engagement		Low Engagement		I don't know.
	We use this data in decisionmaking processes.	We have visualized this data and have shared it with the public.	We have visualized this data using graphs, charts, or other tools.		We know how to access this data, but have not used it.	We do not know how to access this data.
Recent heat hazard data	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

1.B Assessing Heat Actions

Please indicate the status of your community's engagement with each of the following interventions. Hard interventions refer to the addition, subtraction, or alteration of vegetative or built materials that change the composition and/or configuration of urban form. Soft interventions refer to programmatic or other action aimed at addressing the cause and/or impacts of heat. Please utilize the 'other' option if there are interventions you are interested in that are not listed.

Intervention Strategy	High Engagement		Medium Engagement		Low Engagement		I don't know.
	We are implementing and making progress with robust policies / plans / programs.	We are setting stated, measurable goals for future implementation.	We are taking some action, though not presently robust.	We are interested, and have not yet taken action but plan to.	Interested, just not presently planning to take action.	Not very relevant to our community needs at the moment.

2. Baseline Capacity

The following questions are intended to gauge your community's capacity to engage with the activities contained within the Roadmap Workbook. Communities will not be scored according to evidence of greater capacity in any one area. Rather, responses will be used to make sure selected communities and lead organizations are representative of a diversity of heat-specific management capacities and heat action preparedness.

2.A Authority

Please indicate the level of authority granted to the applying organization and/or its nominee(s) to manage heat risks.

Party	High Authority		Medium Authority		Low Authority		I don't know.
	Has formal responsibility to manage heat as documented in an adopted plan or creation of a heat office or officer position	Has formal responsibility to manage climate risks as documented in an adopted plan or creation of a climate / resilience office or position	Has staff / is a staff person with responsibility for heat resilience in job or role description.		Has implicit or informal role in leading local heat risk reduction efforts	Addresses heat on an ad-hoc basis as part of normal operations
