

2025 ACS Conference Call for Abstracts Submission Form

The 2025 American Community Survey (ACS) Data Users Conference will be held on May 29 (virtual) and June 3 (in-person), 2025. We will have virtual breakout sessions with remote attendees on May 29, 2025 and in-person networking, plenary discussions, and roundtable listening sessions on June 3, 2025. We are now inviting abstracts for presentation at the May 29th virtual sessions.

The conference will bring together ACS data users and U.S. Census Bureau staff to share information about key ACS data issues and applications. The conference will include:

- Contributed presentations by ACS data users
- Invited plenary panels
- Breakout sessions
- Lightning sessions
- Roundtable listening sessions
- In-person networking opportunities

Registration for the conference will be free for all participants. We are inviting abstracts for presentation on May 29 (virtual) on any topic relating to ACS data, but we are specifically interested in presentations focused on:

- ACS data accuracy
- Methods and survey design
- Combining ACS with other data
- Estimates and projections
- Data visualization and mapping innovations
- Rural and tribal communities
- Housing
- Poverty and income
- Community health
- Business
- Policy
- Emergency response

Abstracts must focus on ACS data, methods, or other issues.
