

Author Full Name : H GReceived Date : 01/09/2025 08:03 AMComments Received :

Opioids have given me the ability to have a great quality of life. I work full time, take care of my family, volunteer, and am a functioning member of society. There are millions of people just like me. And I, like millions of others, have in the past been negatively affected by the CDC guidelines on prescription opioids. It's time to start treating people with pain like people again. We are not a third world country.