

Author Full Name : Susan ParterReceived Date : 01/14/2025 02:06 AMComments Received :

My daughter, 28, has chronic pain from her connective tissue disorder. She is unable to get proper pain management since there are so many restrictions. Even in the hospital when she was admitted from the ER with an uncontrollable thunder clap headache, the doctor hesitant for 8 hours before giving her some pain relief. Pain is real and in this day of modern medicine treatment is called for.