

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/19/2025 05:24 PMComments Received :

These changes blatantly ignore intersex and similar people, while also discriminating against transgender people for no quantifiable reason. These changes are based Executive Orders that are not law and multiple of the same topic have been rejected by federal judges already. This preemptive discrimination on non-conforming people is just that, discrimination. This country has laws and Amendments against discrimination, and these changes perpetuate that discrimination.