

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/19/2025 05:57 PM

Comments Received :

Insisting on gender markings on the passports will only ensure that things become more complicated for security, especially if someone doesn't look like their gender marking on the document. This will actually slow down processes, waste taxpayer dollars, and make things worse for all citizens. The change is going to have a negative effect on everyone.