

Author Full Name : Alyssa

Received Date : 02/19/2025 05:53 PM

Comments Received :

It is beyond ridiculous that a falsity is being raised as an actual issue if a transgender person applies for a passport using their identity. It is discriminatory, intends to perpetuate a lie that a person is endangering cisgender women by identifying according to legal documentation, and it is unconstitutional. Executive orders are NOT law, and the law protects transgender women from this type of deliberate, civil rights-violating behavior.

Stop this absolute, nonsensical treatment of transgender Americans.