

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/19/2025 06:01 PM

Comments Received :

Limiting who is able to change their name on their passport is restrictive, regardless of whether someone is married or has legally changed their name. This will inevitably end in lawsuits which will cost the taxpayers money, which will increase the deficit. This is a bad change and should be rejected.