As a transgender individual who transitioned over 10 years ago, it is incredibly dehumanizing to have a Passport that puts a target on my back for harassment. By airplane staff and security, and endangering myself if I were to travel to other countries, it outs me and risks my safety. We shouldn't be ruling back rights that Americans have had for years now. Being labeled female while having a beard and voice deeper than many people's fathers is absurd & I and many others deserve the dignity of existing in this country and others without malice.
