

Author Full Name : Scott Williams

Received Date : 02/19/2025 06:32 PM

Comments Received :

I do not support the proposed to change replace “gender” with “sex”. Knowing the gender of the person holding the passport is more practical, and useful than having a marker of the person’s sex at birth. It’s more efficient both at the times when one is using their passport, as it relates to a person’s present state. Also, keeping the existing gender marker is an easy way to include all people.