

Author Full Name : Bryan Whitlock

Received Date : 02/19/2025 06:22 PM

Comments Received :

I think the gender information on passports should accurately reflect the lived gender of the person for whom the document is for. This was the direction of policy prior to President Trump's spate of highly questionable executive orders and I see no rational reason to deviate from it now. Trans men are men, trans women are women, and nonbinary gender identities are valid as well. Thank you for your time and consideration.