More then two genders do exist, as the existence of intersex people can show. It really does come across this change, as per the "'Defending Women from Gender Ideology Extremism and Restoring Biological Truth to the Federal Government' Executive Order, doesn't accomplish much except to make certain citizens feel marginalized.

I'm not Trans, but I can see the negative effects this kind of marginalization has on people, people who should be allowed to live how they wish, without the government trying to impose on them, especially when they are simply trying to live their lives.
