

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 02/19/2025 06:55 PM

Comments Received :

The rapid policy changes for transgender individuals applying for or renewing passports have caused widespread confusion, inconsistent practices, and endangered thousands of Americans. By denying individuals passports, or providing them with passports with information that does not match their appearance and other legal documentation, the State Department has in practice placed these U.S. Citizens under a travel ban.