

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 02/19/2025 06:43 PMComments Received :

Taking away the opportunities that trans people have to find legal documentation of their identities is reprehensible. Studies have shown that forbidding trans individuals from expressing their identities inevitably leads to self harm and suicide. Allowing gender marker changes does not cause security issues or harm anyone. In fact, it saves lives. Continue allowing name and gender changes on passports.